A double-door calendar box is a popular Christmas traditional decoration, usually used from December 1st to December 24th. This calendar box typically has two doors, behind each of which there is a small drawer. Every day, one drawer is opened to reveal a small gift, such as chocolate, candy, toys, or small ornaments. The shape of this calendar box is usually themed around Christmas, such as Santa Claus, Christmas trees, snowmen, etc., and the colors are typically red, green, white, and other Christmas colors. The double-door calendar box is not only a decoration but also a way to add atmosphere, fun, and anticipation to the holiday, especially for children, who are very happy to open a small drawer every day and look forward to the small gift inside. If you are looking for a fun way to celebrate Christmas, a double-door calendar box may be a good choice.
