A card box, also known as a drawer-style box, is a common type of box. In addition to this, other common box types include flip-top boxes, foldable boxes, round boxes, square boxes, rectangular boxes, and more. Each type of box has its unique characteristics and uses. The card box is suitable for storing small items and its design with a drawer-like effect greatly facilitates the process of retrieving and storing items.

Features of Card Boxes:

Card boxes generally consist of a drawer and a top cover, made with a snap-lock design to ensure a tight seal, preventing dust and moisture from entering and protecting the quality of the items stored inside. Card boxes can be made from different materials such as cardboard, grey board, copperplate paper, kraft paper, art paper, corrugated paper, specialty paper, or recycled paper, depending on the nature of the product.

Uses of Card Boxes:

Card boxes can be used to store various small items such as jewelry, watches, and accessories. Additionally, card boxes can be used as gift boxes by adding printed corporate logos, brand names, etc., enhancing the appearance and value of the product.

Manufacturing Process of Card Boxes:

The production process of card boxes includes designing, printing, die-cutting, folding, and gluing. During production, precise measurements and sampling are required based on factors such as box size, thickness, and shape to ensure that the quality and appearance of the box meet customer requirements.

Different Types of Card Boxes:

Depending on usage and material, card boxes can also be classified as portable card boxes, PVC card boxes, push-up card boxes, metal frame card boxes, etc. Each type of card box has its unique characteristics and uses.

Material: White cardboard, grey board paper, copperplate paper, kraft paper, art paper, corrugated paper, specialty paper, recycled paper.

Our foldable card paper box can store a variety of items, including chocolates, snacks, jewelry, cosmetics, electronics, office supplies, handicrafts, wine, candles, personal care products, books, customized souvenirs, premium stationery, home decor, toys, fabrics, etc.
