XL Packaging: Custom Pink Cosmetic Paper Tubes – Face Cream Cylinders with Ribbon Handles

Elevate your skincare line with XL Packaging's custom pink cosmetic paper tubes, designed specifically for face creams, lotions, and premium beauty products. These cylindrical packages combine a soft pink aesthetic with functional design—featuring a ribbon handle for easy portability and your brand's unique logo. Perfect for indie beauty brands, luxury skincare lines, and gift sets, these tubes blend sustainability, style, and practicality to make your products stand out.

Key Features: Pink Beauty & Functional Design

1. Soft Pink Aesthetic for Cosmetics

Versatile Pink Shades:

Customizable pink hues (blush, rose, magenta, or pastel) to align with your brand's identity—from soft and feminine to bold and modern.

Premium Paper Finish:

300gsm–400gsm art paper wrapped around a rigid cardboard core, with options for:

Matte lamination for a velvety, sophisticated look.

Gloss lamination to enhance pink vibrancy and resist fingerprints.

Textured paper (e.g., linen or embossed) for a tactile, luxury feel.

2. Cylinder Design for Face Cream

Tailored Sizes for Beauty Products:

Standard Face Cream: Diameter 5–7cm, height 8–12cm (fits 50ml–100ml jars or tubes of face cream).

Gift Sets: Diameter 8–10cm, height 12–15cm (accommodates face cream + serum or travel-sized products).

Travel-Friendly: Compact diameter 4–5cm, height 6–8cm (ideal for mini face creams or sample sizes).

Structural Integrity:

Rigid cardboard core prevents crushing, protecting delicate face cream jars during shipping or display.

3. Ribbon Handle for Portability

Elegant & Functional:

A soft ribbon handle (matching or contrasting the pink tube—e.g., white, gold, or rose gold satin) attached to the top, making the tube easy to carry in purses or gift bags.

Secure Attachment:

Ribbons are reinforced with glue and paper tabs to ensure durability, with a comfortable length (15–20cm) for easy gripping.

Custom Handle Options:

Satin, grosgrain, or velvet ribbons, with optional branding (e.g., logo-printed ribbon) for an extra touch of luxury.

4. Custom Branding & Finishes

Logo & Design Integration:

Full-color CMYK printing for brand logos, product names (e.g., "Hydrating Face Cream"), or ingredient highlights (e.g., "Rose Extract").

Gold/silver/rose gold foil stamping for logos or decorative accents—adding a metallic pop against pink.

Embossing/debossing for a 3D effect (e.g., raised logo or floral motifs) that enhances the tube's tactile appeal.

Informative Details:

Optional side printing with product benefits ("24-Hour Moisture") or usage instructions to educate consumers.

5. Protective & Practical Features

Secure Closures:

Push-on lid (matching pink paper) with a tight fit to keep dust out and maintain product freshness.

Optional magnetic closure for premium lines, adding a satisfying "snap" when closing.

Interior Lining:

Acid-free paper lining to protect face cream jars from scratches, with a smooth finish that complements the exterior.

The pink cosmetic paper tube for face cream or as a custom cosmetic brushes tube packaging with a ribbon handle is a charming and practical choice.

The pink color gives it a feminine and appealing look, making it stand out on store shelves or in a makeup collection.

paper cylinder box is not only visually attractive but also eco-friendly, as paper is a renewable resource. For face cream, the tube provides a secure and hygienic packaging solution. It protects the product from light, air, and moisture, ensuring the cream remains fresh and effective. The custom design allows for branding and product information to be prominently displayed, enhancing brand recognition. As a cosmetic brushes tube packaging, it offers a convenient way to store and transport brushes. The ribbon handle adds a touch of elegance and makes it easy to carry. The tube can be customized to fit different brush sizes and shapes, keeping them organized and protected. Whether for face cream or cosmetic brushes, this pink cosmetic paper tube with a ribbon handle is a great option for those looking for stylish and functional packaging that reflects their brand's personality.

The Cosmetic Paper Tube is a set of 2 piece paper tube, the paper cosmetic tube made from paperboard and coated paper, boasting eco-friendly characteristics. Crafted with precision, the cosmetic tube paper box features flat edges on both the paper tube top and tube packaging bottom caps. The cosmetic friendly paper tube outer surface is adorned with colorful printing, showcasing a vibrant and lively design. The front of the cosmetic oil paper tube is embellished with a gold foil logo.

One distinct feature of this paper tube cosmetic packaging is the pink ribbon handle, allowing customers to easily carry it like a handbag after purchasing their products, making it exceptionally convenient. The interior of the cosmetic cardboard paper tube is also pink, complementing the external design seamlessly.

Why Choose XL Packaging's Cosmetic Tubes?

- Brand Alignment: Soft pink hues and customizable designs align with skincare brands targeting a feminine, luxury, or wellness-focused audience.
- Portability: Ribbon handles make the tubes easy to carry—ideal for travel-sized products or gift sets.
- Sustainability: Paper-based construction appeals to eco-conscious beauty consumers, reducing plastic waste.
- Shelf Appeal: The cylindrical shape and pink aesthetic stand out among traditional square cosmetic packaging, attracting attention.
