Product Description

Circular Empty shape Makeup Cardboard High quality Customized logo Private Label Eye Shadow packaging

The circular empty eye shadow box made of environment-friendly high-quality cardboard provides a luxurious and environment-friendly cosmetic packaging solution. This type of packaging not only reflects the importance of environmental protection, but also meets the needs of consumers for aesthetics and practicality. This packaging uses a combination of 1200mm cardboard and 157gsm art paper, ensuring durability and high quality. As a green packaging material, cardboard is not only convenient for processing, transportation, and storage, but also easy to recycle, reducing environmental pollution. In addition, the application of modern art paper has also enhanced the aesthetic value of packaging, making it more attractive in the market. The round empty eye shadow box is designed as a magnetic gift box with a mirror inserted. This design not only increases the practicality of the product, but also adds elegance and fashion. This innovative design concept is in line with the current trend of cosmetic packaging, emphasizing the combination of practicality and artistry.

In addition, the product also offers customized logos and private brand options, allowing each customer to obtain unique and personalized packaging solutions based on their brand image and market positioning. This customized service is an important way to meet the personalized and branding needs of modern consumers.

In terms of transportation, diversified transportation options are provided, such as express delivery, air, train, and sea freight, all to meet the fast delivery needs of different regions and time sensitive.

In a word, this circular empty eye shadow box made of environment-friendly high-quality cardboard not only conforms to the current environmental protection and aesthetic trends in materials and design, but also effectively meets the needs of the market and consumers by providing customized services and flexible transportation options. This packaging solution undoubtedly provides a new option for the cosmetics industry that is both environmentally friendly and competitive in the market.
