Key Features & Benefits

Feature	How It Benefits Your Brand
157gsm Art Paper	Creates a smooth, professional outer surface for premium brand presentation and custom graphics
2mm Paperboard	Provides a rigid and substantial structure for a more premium packaging feel
Lid & Base Construction	A straightforward two-piece structure that is practical for efficient production and easy product presentation
Watch Pillow Insert	Supports the watch inside the box and helps keep it neatly positioned during presentation
Ribbon Detail	Adds a refined decorative element and can be matched to your brand style
Custom Printing	Allows your logo, artwork, brand colors, and product graphics to be printed directly on the packaging
Efficient Manufacturing	The simple structure is suitable for streamlined production, helping control manufacturing costs
Reusable Design	Customers can continue using the box for watch storage or other small accessories
Custom Dimensions	The box can be developed according to your watch size and packaging requirements
15+ Years of Experience	Experienced production workers help deliver consistent workmanship and efficient order fulfillment

Ideal Applications

- Wristwatch packaging
- Fashion watch packaging
- Luxury watch gift packaging
- Private-label watch brands
- Watch retailers
- Jewelry and accessory brands
- Watch gift sets
- Promotional and corporate watch gifts

Customization Options

Your watch packaging should reflect your product positioning. We manufacture each box according to your approved specifications rather than using a one-size-fits-all design.

- Box Size - Designed according to your watch dimensions and presentation requirements
- Artwork & Logo - Use your own branding, graphics, product information, and visual identity
- Printing - Custom printing can be used to create a consistent visual style across your packaging range
- Ribbon - Ribbon color and style can be coordinated with your brand design
- Watch Pillow - The pillow can be adapted to the watch packaging requirements
- Production Quantity - Suitable for bulk packaging orders with flexible planning

Frequently Asked Questions

- What type of watch is this box suitable for?
The box is primarily designed for wristwatch packaging and can be customized according to the dimensions and shape of your watch.
- What materials are used for the watch box?
The standard construction uses 157gsm art paper, 2mm paperboard, ribbon, and a watch pillow insert.
- Can I use my own logo and artwork?
Yes. We produce custom packaging based on your supplied artwork, logo, colors, and design specifications.
- Is the box suitable for bulk production?
Yes. The simple lid and base construction is suitable for efficient volume production and can help reduce manufacturing complexity.
- Can I request a sample before mass production?
Yes. Sample support is available so you can evaluate the box structure, dimensions, printing, ribbon, and pillow before proceeding with bulk production.
