Product Description

Luxury Green Line Art Printed Tuck End Box, 250gsm / 300gsm / 350gsm White Card Gift Box for Body Wash Sponge

Product Description

The Luxury Green Line Art Printed Tuck End Box is an elegant folding carton designed for body wash sponges, scented bath products, skincare samples, and beauty gift packaging. Featuring a convenient tuck-end structure, this one-piece folding carton can be shipped flat to reduce storage space and transportation costs while offering easy assembly and reliable product support.

Made from 350gsm white card, the box features a refreshing forest green background with delicate botanical line-art patterns printed across the surface. Elegant gold foil borders and gold-stamped brand lettering create a sophisticated vintage-inspired appearance. A white shield-shaped front panel provides a clear display area for the brand name, product collection, fragrance, product benefits, and net weight.

The box is printed using CMYK full-color printing combined with gold foil stamping and finished with matte lamination for a smooth, refined, and scratch-resistant surface. Additional product information, including ingredients, barcode, country of origin, and website details, is printed neatly on the bottom panel.

With its practical tuck-end design, premium decorative finishing, and customizable printing options, this folding carton is an excellent packaging solution for bath sponges, scented body wash products, personal care items, and beauty gift sets. We offer custom sizes, paper thicknesses, printing designs, brand logos, foil stamping, spot UV, and other finishing options to meet your packaging requirements.

Key Features & Benefits

Premium White Card Material — Lightweight Yet Reliable Protection

Manufactured from 350gsm white card, this folding carton provides a balance of structural strength, lightweight construction, and cost efficiency. The sturdy paperboard helps protect bath sponges and personal care products during storage, handling, and retail display.

Elegant Botanical Line Art — Distinctive Luxury Brand Presentation

The forest green background, delicate botanical patterns, and gold foil decorative borders create a sophisticated vintage-inspired appearance. The shield-shaped front panel provides an organized space for product branding and essential information, helping your products stand out on retail shelves.

Gold Foil Stamping — Premium Decorative Finishing

Gold foil borders and brand lettering add an elegant metallic effect to the packaging. Combined with matte lamination, the contrast between the soft green artwork and metallic gold details enhances the perceived value of your products.

Tuck-End Folding Structure — Easy Assembly & Cost-Effective Shipping

The one-piece folding carton features a convenient tuck-end design that can be shipped flat before assembly. This helps reduce shipping volume and warehouse storage requirements. The bottom locking structure provides reliable support for packaged bath and personal care products.

Fully Customizable Printing — Tailored Packaging for Your Brand

We support customized dimensions, paper thicknesses, CMYK printing, Pantone colors, brand logos, gold or silver foil stamping, embossing, debossing, and spot UV. Every detail can be tailored to your product specifications and brand identity.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: What products can this tuck-end box be used for?

This folding carton is suitable for body wash sponges, scented bath sponges, bath accessories, skincare samples, personal care products, and small beauty gift sets. The dimensions can be customized to fit your specific products.

Q2: Can I choose different paper thicknesses?

Yes. We offer 250gsm, 300gsm, and 350gsm white card options. The appropriate paper weight depends on your box dimensions, product weight, and required structural strength.

Q3: Can I customize the green botanical design?

Absolutely. You can provide your own artwork, logo, and brand colors. Our factory supports custom CMYK printing, Pantone colors, botanical patterns, and other graphic designs.

Q4: Is gold foil stamping available?

Yes. Gold foil stamping is available for brand logos, decorative borders, and other graphic elements. Silver foil and other foil colors can also be customized.

Q5: Can I add a product window to the box?

Yes. We can customize the carton with a die-cut display window and optional transparent PET film, allowing customers to see the product inside. The window position and dimensions can be adjusted according to your design.

Q6: Are these boxes shipped flat or pre-assembled?

These folding cartons are normally shipped flat to reduce transportation and storage costs. Customers can assemble them easily when needed. Pre-assembled packaging can also be discussed for specific projects.

Q7: Can you print barcodes and product information on the packaging?

Yes. We can print ingredients, product descriptions, barcodes, net weight, country of origin, website information, and other required details on the box panels. You can provide the final artwork for production.

Q8: Can I request a sample before placing a bulk order?

Yes. We recommend a physical sample before mass production so you can evaluate the paper quality, dimensions, folding structure, printing colors, and gold foil finishing.

Q9: What is your MOQ?

MOQ depends on the box size, paper material, printing requirements, and production process. Please share your estimated order quantity so we can recommend a suitable production solution.

Q10: Do you provide custom packaging for overseas customers?

Yes. We provide OEM and ODM paper packaging services for customers in the USA, Canada, Europe, Australia, and other international markets. We can assist with packaging design, sampling, bulk manufacturing, and export shipping.
